

On Friday, Dec. 7, Albany Options School hosted a career education panel for all high school students. The panel guests that day were (from left) Detective Micah Smith from the Linn County Sheriff's Department, Kyle Kinion of the Linn County Juvenile Department, Sgt. Alan Lynn of the Albany Police Department, and Brandi Blethen of Linn County Juvenile Department. "Special thanks to our guests who shared their time and knowledge with our students at Albany Options School," writes Anna Sokolov, Business to School Liaison. "We are always looking for professionals in our community to come present to our students about their career." Anyone interested in presenting may contact Sokolov at 541-067-4563 or anna.sokolov@albany.k12.or.us.
