Angel Ramirez, a student at Albany Options School, helps Sunrise Elementary School students choose a book to take home during a book fair May 21 at the school. AOS held a book drive to make the giveaway possible. The older students collected more than 500 children's books for the 420 Sunrise students, and chose to donate the remainder to the ABC House.

Albany Democrat-Herald, Thursday, November 21, 2013